Hi. Today, my mood is much better, because I see your response to my first letter. And I hope you're interested in further relations and correspondence with me. I really hope that you liked my picture I sent you last time. I think you're a serious person, and you will take serious consideration to the correspondence with me! I do not want to waste my time on some games with feelings on the internet. I never play such kind of games. I'm serious, lonely girl, and I want to have only a serious relationship in future. So I live in a country Azerbaijan, this country has borders with such countries as Armenia, Russia. But Azerbaijan - is an independent country. I got your e-mail in the dating agency.

I want you to know that the age difference does not matter for me. My age is 27 years. My birthday is April 15, 1988. All my friends tell me that I have a look younger than my real age. I think it's very good thing when girl looks younger than actual age. Do you agree with me? I work in a store as salesman. I will write you in my next letter more information about me. Unfortunately, writing letters by e-mail, this is the only way for me to communicate with you for a while. I will write you about my life more, and I am sure it will be much clearer for you. I promise to write you long letters. I hope you will find some free time to write me letters as answer. In the next letter I expect that you will tell me more about you. Now I'll check my email more often, and when I see your answer, then I'll write you back.

Hello Regina,

Thank you for the letter and the photo. It is nice to put a name to the face. Yes, I am a serious person. I am an artist. Artists are usually very serious and they do not play any games. I'm sorry to hear that you're lonely.

Azerbaijan sounds like a wonderful country. I would love to hear more about it. If you write me long letters, I promise that I will read them and respond. In fact, we may be able to make art from these letters. Maybe we will create a narrative that other people find interesting. Make sure to check your email more often. I will also find more free time to write you.

Hi, thanks for your answer. I am glad that our relationship continues, and now I will try to tell you more information about me. I told you in my last letter that my age 27 years old, and I live in Azerbaijan, and it is a Muslim country. This is my home and I love my country. You can learn more about it on the internet, I think there is enough information. People who live here are very kind and understanding. They are always ready to communicate. In my country, a very mild climate. And usually within a year the temperature is always more then zero. It is rarely cold, only in those parts of the country where there are mountains. Just my country is bounded by the Caspian Sea. But the only thing that really worries me is the religion of my country. Most of the inhabitants profess Islam, and strictly comply with all the basics of it. I also profess this religion. I have not had the opportunity to choose it, and I had to follow these principles from childhood.

I live in a small town Saatli, it is located not very far from the coast of the Caspian Sea, and not very far from our nation's capital Baku, about 200 km .Now I live alone, I rent an apartment. I left my parents' house a few years ago. And now I have an independent life, and I do not depend on my parents.I left their house, because I do not agree with the position of my father about me. In our religion, women have very few rights and freedoms. Men are Main everywhere. And so my father tried several times to look for my husband. Such traditions in our country. But I did not agree with that. I had a big row with my father, and then I ran away from home. My parents do not know where I live now. I know that my father wants me to find and return home, but I'm doing all that he could not do it. I'll tell you more about it in my next letter.

So I've never been married and I do not have children. Because in order to find a husband by myself, I have to obtain the consent of my father. And it's not going to happen. So I'm lonely. And I'm surethat at my age, it's time to have a family and a serious relationship. So I took the decision to look for a man in another country. For me, this is the only way to be happy. For this, I addressed to the international marriage agency, which is in the city Baku. There they gave me your email address. I paid them little money for it. I hope now you know how I found your e-mail? I think it is not so important is the way I got your address, more importantly, we are now able to communicate and get to know each other.

But I never left Azerbaijan, I've never been in other countries. And all I know about other countries, all the information I get from magazines, TV, books or the Internet.

I want to tell you that it was very difficult for me to start an independent life. But I was able to do it. Now I have a good life, I have a permanent job, close friends and a quiet life. But I do not have the most important thing, I do not have a loved one with whom I will build a future ..Perhaps we can develop our relationship into something very serious. Who knows.Even if we just stay friends, it will also be a good result. But deep down, I hope that we will have a more serious relationship than friendship. Because that's my goal. And when the time is right, then we can discuss personal meeting.

I work as a salesman women fashion clothing in a large shopping center. This job allows me to have a steady income. I think it's very important that a person had a permanent job. In our real world, this is not a simple financial situation, many people are starting to get a lot of problems in their lives. It's very sad when people's lives have a negative impact money. Now I have enough money to buy food, rent an apartment, and a few more money left for entertainment. I spend it for trips to the theater, or in a cafe with a friend. This is my main way of spending free time. Also, my job allows me to have constant communication with people. Especially with the other girls. It is always very exciting and brings a lot of positive emotions.

I have several hobbies. I love listening to music, the national Azerbaijan. Sometimes I listen to foreign artists such as Madonna, Enrique Inglesias, Adriano Celentano. I love listening to romantic music.

I also love to read books, romance novels, such as "Twilight." And historical novels. I think people need to know our history, the history of our country and other countries. When one remembers the story, it helps him not to commit some mistakes. I believe that when a person reads a lot of books, it helps him communicate better with people.

I love to play sports, go to the gym, or doing jogging. I love to go for walks in the park to enjoy the beauty of nature. I also very much love animals. Especially horses. Unfortunately I do not have a pet. Do you have a pet you love animals? I'm asking you because you have such an opinion, if a man loves animals, then it means that he is kind, calm, and able to real sincere feelings.

I understand that for the best of our communication needs are also other ways. Unfortunately, I do not have a cell phone so you can call. I live in a small town, and I do not need to have a cell phone. But I promise you, then, when we get to know each other much better, I can buy a phone card and call you. So you can hear my voice. I can try to speak some English. I write you letters from internet cafes. And now it is for me the only way to maintain our fellowship. I do not have an account in social networking sites such as Face Book. Since this requires a lot of free time, but I do not have it. I can not constantly be in the Internet cafe. Internet cafe manager also said that their overall speed internet is not very high, and thus there is a large number of computers. Therefore, it is not enough to have a normal conversation via Skype. I hope you can understand it all right. And we will continue to communicate via e-mail.

Now I will finish my letter. I hope I did not bore you with this long letter, and you can write me an answer. I would also like to receive your photos. And I hope that you also write me a nice long letter. I want you to tell me about your life, your hobbies, your job some more. I am interested in all you ready to tell me.

I look forward to your reply.

Hi Regina,

Your letter was great and it included lots and lots of text. I'm sorry to hear about the problems that you had with your father. It is never easy when the ambitions of the parents collide with those of the offspring. I imagine that, someday, you will make peace with your father.

You didn't mention anything about my art. As I mentioned in my last letter, I am a digital artist. The current project that I'm working on involved email, digital identity, and the global communications network. Since you didn't mention anything about my art, I'm going to assume that it is acceptable to use these letters in an art project. Your story is very interesting and I think that many people would be interested in reading it. Since the readers don't know if you are real or computerized, they will always be wondering if your words are a fictional narrative or a form of documentary. In fact, part of the intrigue of this project is that the boundaries of real and unreal become undistinguishable. I will try to clarify in my upcoming letters. In the meantime, keep sending me your narrative.

No, I do not have pets, but I am very kind to animals.

Tony

Hello

Sent: Fri, Jul 17, 2015 09:33 PM

Hello, thank you for your answer.

I'm always happy to receive news from you, it always makes my normal day more interesting. You already know that I can not be absolutely happy in my country. Since my religion and the principles of life in my country, it's not allowing me to do that. I have never had a serious love relationship. And all I know about it is only a theory. I've seen a lot of this in various romantic movies or read about in romance novels. Of course, this is all very beautiful. But I understand that in real life would be much different. In real life, there will be difficulties, problems, and some hard situations. That need to be decided jointly. I understand that, and I'm ready for that. I also believe that it is not so important from where begin serious love relationship. It can start when meeting on the street, in a museum or even the Internet.

If you make an effort, any such relationship can develop into something more serious. If two people have a common interest and make steps towards each other if their relationship is in constant development, then they can expect a very good reward for it. I truly believe that even Internet dating may one day grow into a serious relationship that will bring a lot of joy.

Also, now I'm trying to avoid the manifestation of the religion of Islam in my life. My clothes are plain, I do not dress in religious clothing, I did not close the open parts of my body by dark clothing. Of course, many people are judgmental looks when they see me on the street, but it's my choice. I also do not agree with some of main parts of Islam with regard to the relationship between a man and a woman. In Islam, a man may have several wives official. And I can not take this! I believe that every man should have only one loved wife. So I finally decided for myself, my husband-to-be out of Azerbaijan. I think now you understand better why I'm looking for a man for marriage from another country? And why do I have loneliness at the age of 27 years old!

In general, I want to tell you that religion is not important to me. And I think that one day I can change it. I really like the Christian religion, because in this religion all men are equal, and the ratio of girls is much better.

I wish I could still tell you more about my hobbies, I like to cook food. I constantly experimenting with it. Maybe one day you'll be able to try my cooking food, and you're sure like it. I know how to cook a variety of salads, meat dishes and a lot of tasty. Along with this letter I am sending you a picture when I was at my kitchen and do the cooking.

Today was a normal day for me. there was no something special. I told you already, which is usually after work, I have a very good mood. And today it was too. But sometimes after work I have fatigue. Because most of my work day goes on his feet, and also some fatigue in the neck. To get rid of this, I spent some time after work to just lie in my bed and rest. Sometimes I do myself a neck massage to relax it.

I'm also very fond of watching different movies. I have already told you that I love historical novels, and film Alexander, this is one of my favorite historical movies. I also love watching movies fantasy, such as Garry Potter, The Chronicles of Narnia. And when I have a happy mood, I love watching romantic comedies.

Today, after work, I came to the internet cafe to see your answer. Then I'm going to go with my friend to have a female conversation in the cafe. I have a best friend Jalya. This she did most of my photos that I send to you. She is really a very good photographer, and the pictures she made me very loving. I only ask that you never asked for my nude photos. Because I will never send it over the internet, I just stop communicating with you after such requests.

How was your day? Do you have something special or interesting?

Now I will finish my letter. I hope you will answer me soon again.

Hi Regina,

You mentioned that you sent a picture of yourself cooking, but there is not such attachment in your email. If we are going to develop a full work of art, it is very important that you complete the promises that you make in your writing.

Once again, you didn't mention anything about our digital art project. I'm sorry to hear that you're having so many problems with religion, but, don't worry so much about it. I recommend that you start making art works on your own and then you can focus on topics such as polygamy and religious persecution.

I think that the "friend" Jayla is a good addition to the storyline. Perhaps it is time to include another character within our narrative. I love the part where you mention that you "go with my friend to have a female conversation in the café." I'm not sure what entails a "female conversation", but I'm sure that you will address this in upcoming entries. Keep up the good work.

Oh...and "Garry Potter"? Good one...LOL.

Hello again

Imreal.jpg (346KB)

Hello again, thank you for your answer. For me it is very important to see your interest in me, and your constant attention. It is very good in the beginning of a relationship when it present. I try to write you as often as possible. I'm always interested to read your response, your news. It is so interesting to talk to someone who lives in another country, have a different culture, a different way of life. It's hard to explain in words, but on the other hand, I do not feel much difference between you and me. I can easily communicate with you, like you are near me. I do not feel the boundaries in our communication. And it pleases me very much. We can absolutely free speak on any topic.

I do not much want to talk to you more about my country. The official spoken language is Azerbaijani. Also, some of the more mature people speak Russian. But young people do not know Russian language. I am also speak in Azerbaijani language and some Russian. In the Muslim religion enough good things and concepts. But it is not very close to me. When I see European films, and see the Christian way of life, it is more close to me. In Christianity, more freedom, more tolerance and good relations. If I change one's religion, then I'll try to take religion out of my most good quality, and preserve it. I really have peace of mind now, because I have constant communication with you, and we know each other better with each new letter.

But I understand that the relationship by correspondence, if it lasts a very long time, it becomes a friendship. I do not want that. So I understand that one day will be necessary personal meeting to further develop relations. And if this meeting will not be, then the relationship will not grow and remain a friendship. I would not want that. But of course, it is too early to talk about a real meeting. And I do not want to rush into it. Now I want to continue to learn you better and that you also could do it.

I think we have yet many things to say to each other, and learn better. Today, I had almost a normal day at my job. Came the girl who buys cosmetics continuously, regular customer. She told me that she wants her man could see her just beautiful, always. I get it, but I said that much makeup brings some harm to health. But she said that she did not matter, she wants to do everything possible to stay young and beautiful for her man. Then she was gone.

I do not agree with my shopper. I try to use cosmetics is rare, because I do know what kind of damage it can do. And I also do not agree with the shopper, because it's bad when a person tries to hide his age, or deceive it. I think it's silly to try to cheat the nature. Must take its own view of this, what it is. Because, for example, for me, the more important the inner world of man. It is much more interesting, and it can cause real feelings. I think you're a man with a rich inner world. And if I can see it. Then I could easily fall in love with it. I can always feel the sincerity, and I always answer the same.

I really love my job because it allows me to communicate with people and get pleasure from this communication. Many of my friends tell me that I am a very pretty girl, and I could easily work in the modeling industry, and has time to become a top model. But it never interested me. I think working as a model, it is very hard work, and it is a temporary job. This work is also very nervous. And I never wanted to earn my beauty. Yesterday I was preparing food at home. I was just making one vegetable salad, and chicken stew. I understand that in the world there are different types of food. Italian, European, and Chinese. But I never try it. I'm a little afraid to experiment with unfamiliar food. Maybe one day I'll be able to try food from other countries. But I think it's better to do it in the country where it is the national food. I do not want to try Chinese food, which is prepared in Azerbaijan. Because it is not real Chinese cuisine. I also love talking to people. And tell them the truth, I know. Often people get offended when hearing the truth. And this is the hardest.

But I'm really such a frank and never want to deceive people. Because any cheating, it's become one identified. It's only a matter of time. So my conscience is always calm. And I can sleep at night. Now I will finish my letter. I hope that you also send me a reply soon. Tell me more about your work, it gives you pleasure?

Hi Regina,

What a beautiful picture! You really have a nice smile. I'm glad that you enjoy my letters. I have fun reading your letters too.

So, you asked to hear more about my work. I will explain what I do. I'm an artist and I create characters and tell stories with them - almost like in the movies. I enjoy making these types of stories because you can make the narrative follow any pattern that you choose. Sometimes, I will release these characters on the internet and see if anyone interacts with them. Have you heard of the term "Catfish"? This means that you communicate with someone through email, but they are interacting with a different identity than their own. Sometimes, catfishing can be a bad thing because people will think that they are really in love, but with someone that they've never met. There was a famous sports star named Manti Te'o who fell in love with a girl that he had never met. He was saying that she was his girlfriend and that she died. When journalists tried to find out who she was, they discovered that his girlfriend only existed on the internet. In the end, I feel that it is more like pen pals. It shouldn't matter what a person looks like or whether or not you will ever meet them. All that matters is that both people enjoy writing the letters and that the personal stories remain interesting.

I find your personal story to be very interesting. You come from a very interesting culture and country. You have experienced hardship through your religion and parents. You would like to find something better in life and find a relationship that is exciting and meaningful. These are wonderful things to wish for and I think you will, one day, find what you're looking for.

I'm wondering, have you ever been interested in art? Maybe painting, drawing or photography? I think that you would really enjoy photography. There's nothing better than taking interesting pictures. I've attached a picture of my great grandfather. He was a famous artist during the early 1900's. I usually don't share this picture with anyone, but I wanted to share it with you. I know that he looks a little angry in the picture, but he really was an amazing artist. He changed the way that people looked at art. I only got to meet him when I was younger, so this picture is the only memory that I have left. What do you think of the picture? If you were an artist, what type of work would you make?

I hope you have a wonderful day. I'm really looking forward to reading your next email.

I sit by the sea

Subject:

SL373895.JPG (287KB)

Hello my dear friend. How are you doing today? how is your mood, how is your health? Today when I went to an internet cafe, my mood improved. I can not explain to you, but I have a feeling that today I would see your answer. I have this feeling from morning, and so when I come here after work and saw the confirmation to my sense, then my mood got even better. My day started as usual, at 8.30 am, I went to my job. Every day I start my job at 9:00 am.

I am very glad that our correspondence continued. We also can know each other, share ideas and views on various topics. All this gave me great pleasure. And I want to develop our relationship further. You are far away from Azerbaijan. In a country with a different language spoken, I have already told you that here the native language Azerbaijani. But I see no problem in understanding each other. I can easily explain to you what I think, feel, and it is very important that you understand it correctly.

I could never find such a good person like you in my country. Here, a man and a woman, have little or no relationship till marriage. Sometimes they are meet only few times before. Such traditions here. Of course, some men pay attention to me, but I'm right girl while I live here. And I respect all the traditions of my country. So I never let the men somehow be attentive to me. If I go out of my country, I will not stick to these principles. I told you that if I decide to leave Azerbaijan, I will do it only for a loved man. And I understand that the development of such relations must give up many of the principles of my religion and my upbringing. I'm really ready to do it. Of course the first time after leaving Azerbaijan, it will be very hard for me. Because I come to another country, in another culture. I'll feel some loneliness. Because all my friends will be here in Azerbaijan. But on the other hand, I, will be with the beloved man. And I'm sure that he will do everything to make me feel comfortable.

I want to tell you that each of your letter make sense of closeness to you. It's like I feel, see and hear everything that you write in your letters. It is an incredible feeling. I had never experienced such. Now I understand that made the right choices when I first time write you. I really want to develop our relationship with you to make it to grow into something more. But I do not want to rush. Since it is very serious, may depend on my future life and my destiny. Therefore, if our relationship grow into a strong feeling, I want this to be deliberate. For you and I feel it. I also have another sense that one day our correspondence with you turn into a strong feeling. I am a woman, and like any woman, I have a strong intuition. And I believe it.

Now I begin to understand that I am not alone. That I have good person, which is far away from me. Who support me, and that person you are. I can tell you all that I think. You're a man and you always tell me your opinion. Your opinion is always important for me. Because you're more experienced than I am. You have a lot more life experience than I am. And it's always interesting when you share it with me. I wonder every word you write.

And I'm very happy that I could find a good man online. I'm sure you're very good. And I can not trust you, and say all the innermost. Therefore, in this letter, I want to say one very important thing. For me it is important that you understand me. You know that I live in a Muslim country. And it have its own traditions and laws. In the tradition of our country, girl must be innocent (virgin) until marriage. The girl should lose it only in the wedding night. And if she violates this law, it will be disgraced, and would never be able to have a family. This rule is followed by all the girls in our country. Perhaps that is why, in our country there is no such terrible thing as prostitution. Police closely monitor this. I think that's good. Do you agree with me?

I also follow the law of Islam. And for all my life, I never had sex with a man. I remain a virgin.

You can ask me how this is possible, but it is. I was brought up and raised in this country, and with these traditions. Yes, I'm already 27 years old, and I do not have any sexual experience. Perhaps you find it hard to believe it, because you live in another country, with other moral norms. In your country, women have a different behavior, the other freedom, and they can decide what to do and when. Maybe it's better. But I do not regret that I remain a virgin. Since I believe that I must give it only to one man, the one whom I love. The one who will love me. And with whom I will build a family. This will be the only man for the rest of my life. Only after I myself strongly love someone to want to spend with him all my life: When I see his love, care, affection and support, I make love to a man and build a family with him. I hope you understand me right?

I would also want to say in this letter about how I see the relationship with the man. I have a view of the long-term relationship based on mutual love. I believe that both person should try to make each other happy. More talk, discuss various issues, to compromise and the right decisions. Two people who love each other, should understand and support their love. Have to trust each other. Also an important skill, in my opinion, is the ability to forgive. All people one day make a mistakes and to forgiveness possible not a lot of people. Of course you can't forgive everything. I will never forgive infidelity or betrayal. It is very painful. And so I always try to tell the truth. Lying kills any relationship and prevents live. It is better to tell people the truth, which can be bitter, but it is true, rather than to deceive. A relationship built on love, trust, understanding and sincerity, is the strongest relationship. What do you think about the relationship? I'm very interested to know, I think that this is the same as my thoughts.

I want to know it all, and tell you everything that you could see my serious. Able to understand what I want. So I write to you all this detail.

I think that once you write a lot more about all this. Once I reveal to you a soul. And you completely understand and feel how I feel.

I look forward to your next letter. I want to see your answer, read your mind. Also send me your new photos. Write about everything that happens in your life. I would love to read everything that you write me. I want to think that this letter get even one small step toward building our relationship. This letter, I hope, will be another brick for the foundation of our relationship.

We're just starting to build it. And from what we build it, will probably depend on our future life. We build our own destiny, and to choose our future. I would also like to tell you a little more about my favorite things. Sometimes, when it's raining, I like to sit near the window and watch the street. At these moments, I think about some very important things. And even the thunder do not scare me. I guess I like thunder.

I also really like to go to the sea. I told you that I live not too far from the coast of the Caspian Sea. And in the summer when the weather is good, the weekend I like to spend my free time there. Since sea water is very good for health. With this my letter I'm sending you a picture which made on a coast of the Caspian Sea. Now I'm going home. I think it would be hard to sleep because I have a lot of different thoughts. I'll think of you, present and dream of you. I very much want to see a beautiful dream that you and I together.

I think that soon I will be able to buy a phone card to call you. Unfortunately, I do not have phone, where you can call me.

I end my letter. Once again, thank you for what you continue to write to me!

Hi Regina,

Thanks for your last letter. Also, thanks for the photo. You seem to be really happy. It makes me wonder what the beaches are like in your country. Since you send me so many nice photos, I decided to send you another picture. Did you like the photo of my grandfather? This time, I'm sending you a picture of my great grandmother Georgia. She was also an excellent artist and made many beautiful works. I hope you enjoy the picture. Keep sending pictures. You still owe me a picture of you cooking in your kitchen.

I've been telling other people about our emails. It's funny because sometimes I refer to you as "it". Since I've never met you in person, it's difficult to know what it would be like talking face to face. This is the interesting part of computers. They allow us to connect with someone half way across the world, but there is still a huge amount of distance between us. So, so close yet so far away. In any case, it's fun to talk about our letters with my friends. They wanted to hear all about you, so I've been telling them about your struggles, your interests and your hopes for the future. I hope you don't mind. I'm excited to share your story with others. Every email is like another chapter in a book.

Well, I look forward to hearing back from you. How was your week? Did you do any fun things? Also, I was wondering...if you could travel to anywhere in the world, where would you choose to travel to?

Hi Regina,

I'm confused by your last email. You say that I have not send you emails for your last two letters, but that is not true. I have sent you two different emails and they both included pictures. I'm sad to hear that you did not receive these emails. Maybe the pictures made the emails too big and you did not receive them because of the file size. Anyways, I hope you're not upset and I hope that we can continue communicating.

Just to prove that I wrote you an email, I'm including my last email below. You can read it and see what I wrote only this time, I will not send the picture because it will make the letter too big. I hope that you will continue writing me and sending me pictures. I still want to stay in touch and hear about what is going on in your corner of the world. Please email me when you read this so that I can make sure that you're receiving my emails.

Here is the email that I sent to you last time:

"Thanks for your last letter. Also, thanks for the photo. You seem to be really happy. It makes me wonder what the beaches are like in your country. Since you send me so many nice photos, I decided to send you another picture. Did you like the photo of my grandfather? This time, I'm sending you a picture of my great grandmother Georgia. She was also an excellent artist and made many beautiful works. I hope you enjoy the picture. Keep sending pictures. You still owe me a picture of you cooking in your kitchen."

I've been telling other people about our emails. It's funny because sometimes I refer to you as "it". Since I've never met you in person, its difficult to know what it would be like talking face to face. This is the interesting part of computers. They allow us to connect with someone half way across the world, but there is still a huge amount of distance between us. So, so close yet so far away. In any case, it's fun to talk about our letters with my friends. They wanted to hear all about you, so I've been telling them about your struggles, your interests and your hopes for the future. I hope you don't mind. I'm excited to share your story with others. Every email is like another chapter in a book.

Well, I look forward to hearing back from you. How was your week? Did you do any fun things? Also, I was wondering...if you could travel to anywhere in the world, where would you choose to travel to?"

I have a feeling

Sent: Thu, Jul 30, 2015 06:54 AM

SL373895.JPG (287KB)

Hello my dear friend. How are you doing today? how is your mood, how is your health? Today when I went to an internet cafe, my mood improved. I can not explain to you, but I have a feeling that today I would see your answer. I have this feeling from morning, and so when I come here after work and saw the confirmation to my sense, then my mood got even better. My day started as usual, at 8.30 am, I went to my job. Every day I start my job at 9:00 am.

I am very glad that our correspondence continued. We also can know each other, share ideas and views on various topics. All this gave me great pleasure. And I want to develop our relationship further. You are far away from Azerbaijan. In a country with a different language spoken, I have already told you that here the native language Azerbaijani. But I see no problem in understanding each other. I can easily explain to you what I think, feel, and it is very important that you understand it correctly.

I could never find such a good person like you in my country. Here, a man and a woman, have little or no relationship till marriage. Sometimes they are meet only few times before. Such traditions here. Of course, some men pay attention to me, but I'm right girl while I live here. And I respect all the traditions of my country. So I never let the men somehow be attentive to me. If I go out of my country, I will not stick to these principles. I told you that if I decide to leave Azerbaijan, I will do it only for a loved man. And I understand that the development of such relations must give up many of the principles of my religion and my upbringing. I'm really ready to do it. Of course the first time after leaving Azerbaijan, it will be very hard for me. Because I come to another country, in another culture. I'll feel some loneliness. Because all my friends will be here in Azerbaijan. But on the other hand, I, will be with the beloved man. And I'm sure that he will do everything to make me feel comfortable.

I want to tell you that each of your letter make sense of closeness to you. It's like I feel, see and hear everything that you write in your letters. It is an incredible feeling. I had never experienced such. Now I understand that made the right choices when I first time write you. I really want to develop our relationship with you to make it to grow into something more. But I do not want to rush. Since it is very serious, may depend on my future life and my destiny. Therefore, if our relationship grow into a strong feeling, I want this to be deliberate. For you and I feel it.

I also have another sense that one day our correspondence with you turn into a strong feeling. I am a woman, and like any woman, I have a strong intuition. And I believe it.

Now I begin to understand that I am not alone. That I have good person, which is far away from me. Who support me, and that person you are. I can tell you all that I think. You're a man and you always tell me your opinion. Your opinion is always important for me. Because you're more experienced than I am. You have a lot more life experience than I am. And it's always interesting when you share it with me. I wonder every word you write. And I'm very happy that I could find a good man online. I'm sure you're very good. And I can not trust you, and say all the innermost.

Therefore, in this letter, I want to say one very important thing. For me it is important that you understand me. You know that I live in a Muslim country. And it have its own traditions and laws. In the tradition of our country, girl must be innocent (virgin) until marriage. The girl should lose it only in the wedding night. And if she violates this law, it will be disgraced, and would never be able to have a family. This rule is followed by all the girls in our country. Perhaps that is why, in our country there is no such terrible thing as prostitution. Police closely monitor this. I think that's good. Do you agree with me?

I also follow the law of Islam. And for all my life, I never had sex with a man. I remain a virgin.

You can ask me how this is possible, but it is. I was brought up and raised in this country, and with these traditions. Yes, I'm already 27 years old, and I do not have any sexual experience. Perhaps you find it hard to believe it, because you live in another country, with other moral norms. In your country, women have a different behavior, the other freedom, and they can decide what to do and when. Maybe it's better. But I do not regret that I remain a virgin. Since I believe that I must give it only to one man, the one whom I love. The one who will love me. And with whom I will build a family. This will be the only man for the rest of my life. Only after I myself strongly love someone to want to spend with him all my life: When I see his love, care, affection and support, I make love to a man and build a family with him. I hope you understand me right?

I would also want to say in this letter about how I see the relationship with the man. I have a view of the long-term relationship based on mutual love. I believe that both person should try to make each other happy. More talk, discuss various issues, to compromise and the right decisions. Two people who love each other, should understand and support their love. Have to trust each other. Also an important skill, in my opinion, is the ability to forgive. All people one day make a mistakes and to forgiveness possible not a lot of people. Of course you can't forgive everything. I will never forgive infidelity or betrayal. It is very painful. And so I always try to tell the truth. Lying kills any relationship and prevents live. It is better to tell people the truth, which can be bitter, but it is true, rather than to deceive. A relationship built on love, trust, understanding and sincerity, is the strongest relationship. What do you think about the relationship? I'm very interested to know, I think that this is the same as my thoughts.

I want to know it all, and tell you everything that you could see my serious. Able to understand what I want. So I write to you all this detail. I think that once you write a lot more about all this. Once I reveal to you a soul. And you completely understand and feel how I feel.

I look forward to your next letter. I want to see your answer, read your mind. Also send me your new photos. Write about everything that happens in your life. I would love to read everything that you write me. I want to think that this letter get even one small step toward building our relationship. This letter, I hope, will be another brick for the foundation of our relationship. We're just starting to build it. And from what we build it, will probably depend on our future life. We build our own destiny, and to choose our future. I would also like to tell you a little more about my favorite things. Sometimes, when it's raining, I like to sit near the window and watch the street. At these moments, I think about some very important things. And even the thunder do not scare me. I guess I like thunder.

I also really like to go to the sea. I told you that I live not too far from the coast of the Caspian Sea. And in the summer when the weather is good, the weekend I like to spend my free time there. Since sea water is very good for health. With this my letter I'm sending you a picture which made on a coast of the Caspian Sea. Now I'm going home. I think it would be hard to sleep because I have a lot of different thoughts. I'll think of you, present and dream of you. I very much want to see a beautiful dream that you and I together.

I think that soon I will be able to buy a phone card to call you. Unfortunately, I do not have phone, where you can call me. I end my letter. Once again, thank you for what you continue to write to me!

Hi Regina,

Thanks for your email. I noticed that you sent the same message that was sent a few days ago. You also sent a picture that you have already sent. This is very strange. I'm starting to wonder if there are really 2 of you or are you just sending the same messages to make sure that I received them? I'm not sure, but I would really enjoy an original email from the source of your letters and pictures. You see, I'm using your letters and pictures in an art project and I really can't continue if you keep sending me the same material. You would really enjoy my art project. It deals with computer technology and false identities. I am curious to explore why some people will try to connect with other people over internet, even if they are using alternative versions of themselves. I think that you are one of these alternative identities. I'm not sure if the text and pictures that you send is the actual person that I am communicating with. Don't worry, I'm not mad about it, but I am curious to continue communicating and to find out why people like to use identities that drift away from their actual selves.

Can't wait to get your next email. Please make sure to make it a really good false one and to include another image of someone who you are not.

Hello my dear friend. Today my day filled with joy, because you have wrote me again. I have come to the cafe to see your letter, and my heart sinks when I start to read it. I have a feeling that reading your letters, and writing letters to you, it become a good habit. I am always very pleased to receive a letter from you. Because you're a very nice person, you know how to understand what I write to you. Thank you for that!

How pass your day? How is the weather? I'm fine. The weather is not very good, but I did not pay attention to the weather. Because in any weather I rush to the internet cafe and read your letters. Even if the weather is awful, I will still be happy when I see your new letter. Your letters always make my mood better. Only you can lift my spirits, and do it by best way.

Now you're the only man with whom I communicate on the Internet. I write letters only to you, and I do not have other friends online. Now I can not remember why I chose YOU from the many profiles. Something attracted me in your profile. And now I am very happy that I made the right choice, and we can build our relationship now.

I want also to add some words about what I wrote you in my last letter. I really do not have any sexual experience. This is true. I never even make masturbation or self-gratification. I assume this is not correct. And it will not be as much fun. Because most of real pleasure available to get only in sex. Since I've never had it, I do not have a constant need for it, or thirst. Now I'm waiting for the only man in my life. And I hope that maybe this man will be you. I am very attached to you in this short time. I understand that not much time we are know each other. But anyway, I have a good impression of our friendship ..

In our country, girls marry very early. Sometimes this happens when a girl under 18 years of age. That is, many girls marry very young. I do not think it's good. I considered getting married at an early age can not be happy. This step should be done consciously. It will take time to fall in love with each other, to learn better partner to have a full understanding.

18 years is too young an age to create a family, to have children. I think at my age, it is time to have children. I would like to have 1 or 2 children. I think that's enough. But on the other hand, I do not understand that when people live together for many years without a wedding. This is not right. I believe that it is enough to live a few months together, to understand whether it is possible to get married. If you live together for several months, then you will see the different quality of your love partner, you will see his habits, you'll be able to have sex all the time. And it will be enough to make a decision about the wedding. Our life is too short for just expect something. It's necessary to do things. Even if it would be a mistakes in any case it will be experience. Therefore, it is difficult for me to understand people who check everything several times, which are constantly questioned, and are afraid to take the first steps. Insecure people tend to have few accomplishments in life. A person should clearly understand his desire to make the necessary actions. Do you agree with me?

Maybe it's seem strange to you all my similar reasoning. But these are my views and my beliefs. I understand that in real life everything would not be so perfect. But I'll try to make it less and less bickering various grievances and misunderstandings. I will follow his convictions, and his views. And maximum efforts in order to have the best and strong relationships. What are you willing to do to maintain a relationship with the person you love??

Today I released early from my job. And before I go to a cafe and read your new letter, I meet with my girlfriend Sanilya. She ask me to go with her, because she buy new clothes. She say that I have a good style and it is important for her my opinion. So we spend a few hours in different stores, choosing the appropriate things. As a result, we buy some great things. Both me and my friend were very happy. I believe that for women going shopping this great holiday is to give a good mood. And even if a woman is very tired, she will still be very happy. I like that. I love going shopping, unfortunately, I do not have a lot of opportunities for frequent purchases. We walk with a friend a few hours of shopping, and did not even notice the time. Do you love to shop and make purchases?? After buying things, my friend invited me to the outdoor cafe, drink some tea and chat about life. First she talk about her life, about all the changes that occur in the last days. I see her often enough that it does not say a lot.

Then she asked me how I was faring. I see that she have a lot of interest. And I talk to my friend about you. I tell her about how to find you, start talking to you. She listened with great interest, and I see that she's actually happy for me. She says that I have to appear gleam in his eyes that I become more happy and cheerful. She was very interesting to listen to me. She says that you have to be a very good man, judging by my stories, and besides, she see me change for the better. Then she set me an unexpected question. "Hey friend, maybe you fell in love?" For me, the question was unexpected, and I'm a little embarrassed and confused in words, told her that while I myself do not understand it until the end. Then I quickly change the topic of conversation. We chat a bit further, she go home and I go to an internet cafe and check my mail from you.

Now I will finish my letter. Some sad thought now coming into my head I very much hope that this year, something will change in my personal life. And it will be the best gift on my birthday on 15 April. I still have a question of my friend in my mind. I doubt that I can fall asleep fast today. Because her question, "I'm in love with you or not?" making me think hard. I have to work it out for myself, I have to figure out what I feel for you. I have to ask my heart and trust it. In my heart, I understand that you become more to me than just a friend. I start to think of you, how about a loved one. I'm starting to experience some of the feelings and emotions that I did not experience before. And these feelings are growing every day, with each your new letter. And every night before going to bed, I have to think about it. The more I think, the more I realize how much I get attached to you. I think these feelings grow stronger by the day, because I go to sleep alone. Because you're a very nice man, While I can not say exactly what it is feeling. And to call it. I think that very soon I will be able to write you more. Write about feelings is not easy. This is a very personal thing, and I want you to get it right. I hope that does not scare you much by my own words? Tell me if you believe I have to hurry up with that!? But it is my feeling, and I can not control that. I do not want to hide it from you. I promised to tell you all that I think and feel ... And I do it openly. For me it is important that you understand all of this correctly!

I wish you a nice day, mood and success. I look forward to your reply. Embrace and a kiss.

Hi Regina,

Your letters keep getting more interesting and the writing is beginning to take on the tone of a novel. I think that this will work very well for the work that I'm creating. It sounds like you're taking your flux persona very seriously and I think it makes for good drama and an even better narrative. Keep writing about your feelings. I am certain that the viewers of this work will consider these feelings to be believable, even though we both know that they are a complete fiction.

Sometimes, you write with a passion that is very life like. If I didn't tell the viewer that these letters were received by a false persona, they might actually believe that all of this is real. I also enjoyed the story about having tea with your friend. Setting this scene in a cafe was a wise choice because it gives the audience a better sense of place. Also, your observations about sex and masturbation add a new element to the storyline. In my country, we have a saying that "sex sells". There are some who may think that the narrative is still too early to introduce plot points of sex and masturbation, but I think it will be fine as long as the project does not become a cheap porno. Please have restraint when expanding the sex storyline. In the end, it is better to keep the spectator in suspense. The virgin storyline is a nice introduction. In my country, there aren't too many 27 year old versions, so this might peak the interest of the viewers (both male and female). The latest picture is a nice touch. As always, pictures will always move the narrative forward, so make sure to keep sending them.

OK, I have to go now, but I'm really looking forward to your next letter. Make sure to write more about the strong feelings that you're experiencing. I think this will be the most interesting part of this flux persona project.

A very personal letter

Sent: Mon, Aug 03, 2015 08:18 AM

IMG\_1443.jpg (559KB)

Hello my dear friend. Thank you for your answer. You know, it's always interesting to get for me. This is very important for me. Thank you that you keep writing me letters.

I'll tell you right from the beginning of this my letter. This letter is very personal. I will write here quite a personal things, and it's not so easy to do for me. So I hope on your understanding. It is very important that you read it correctly and understood. By my writing I'm doing the first step, and I hope that you will do a step towards me.

Today I was at work, and my head was full by thoughts about you. I do not know how continue my work, and my hands were shaking a little bit from excitement. I do not know what it was, but it tells me and I say it to you that you are not indifferent for me, you're one special for me! I wish to reach a wonderful future with you! I have a lot of good ideas about this future! I can present it to you. Last night I went to bed alone, about 23 o'clock in the evening, in my cold bed! And I thought about us, and wanted you lay next to me! Since I do not want to live alone anymore. When you came in my thought letters then I think I changed my views to relationship. I have already started to imagine, if you and I were together! I think that if you are now with me, we can talk to you all day and night! And we can tell each other the most wonderful words looking in eyes. If you were next to me - then I would hold your hand and would look in your eyes! And do not miss any sight!

I would have looked at you and trying to understand what you're thinking about me. In your eyes, I immediately knew it would be. I think your eyes were shining like, and you'd be smiling. We would be even more fell in love. You're a very good man, with an open mind and a big heart. Only a part of your heart, you have to give to somebody you love, I think! I know already - you're a real man and strong. And you can always take care about me. I think that you're a man who could give me joy for life, and just be with me always. Always love and respect, always support and help. Never disappoint, and never cheat. As I'm a girl and I need care and affection. Every time I dream at night, when I get tired very much, so I can just put my head to your shoulder or chest, and just be close to you. I want to go to sleep and after sleep want to see you're next to me. And that you watched over me and protected!

I love to dream about it very much, because it is what I strive for! And tell me please, what will you do when you come home very tired? We live in the real world, and to be aware of our actions! I think that you and I have a lot in common interests and views on life, and unite us alone! I am confident that it will be very interesting together! Now I really want to ask you - what do you prefer to do with your girlfriend? How would you want to spend your spare time together? I hope you answer me that! Still a lot of thoughts in my head right now, about the course of the future with you! But if you think that we hurry to much, please tell me. But if in your heart you have the same as I have - very serious and great feeling, and a lot of thought. Then you write me. I imagine our lives together! But I think it should be! I understand that in this case, my knowledge of the language can be a hindrance to full communion. But I promise that I'll be teaching your language better, I know some of the basics things, I even think that I can communicate with you. So that you can get right, all my words and thoughts. It will be very necessary in our relationship. I understand that, and I promise to learn your language. Besides, I'm sure you will help me in that! Is that so?

I already have the feeling that I was falling in love with you more. And this feeling getting stronger day by day. With each letter, I begin to understand that I love you. And I want this feeling grow.

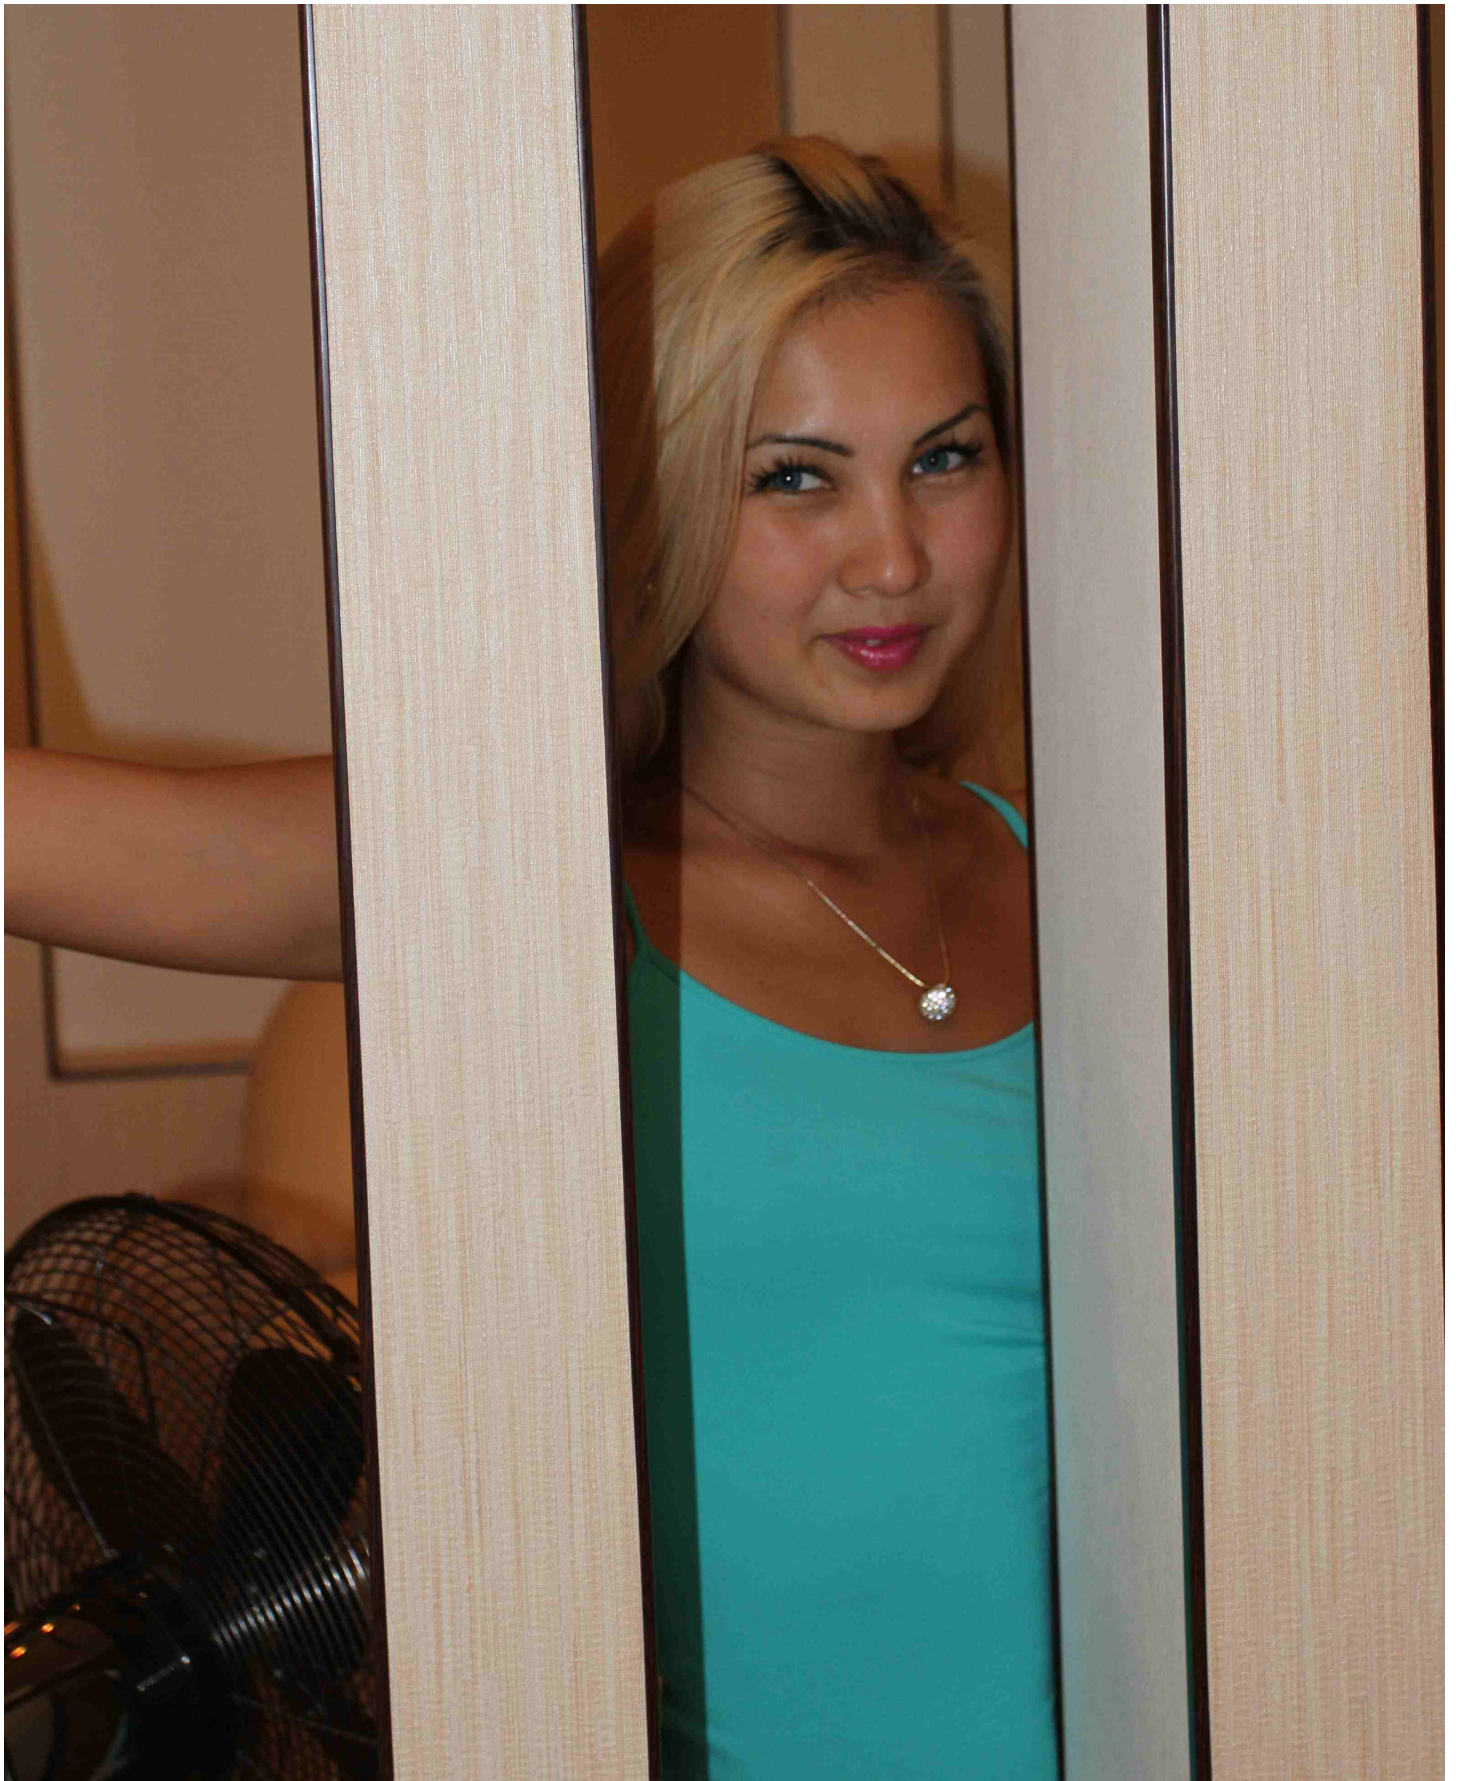

I understand if you say - it is too early for such a serious feeling. We have communion only a short time. But I really feel the love. And I want to treat you as my beloved man. I want to have full love relationship. My words of love for you - it's my feeling. I already know you well enough, and I love you. I like all your qualities. I believe that after a long time been able to find true love. I told you in a letter that if I feel for you, I will immediately tell you that. And I think now is the best time to do this, I can not expect more, and keep it inside myself.

Obviously, you have some time to completely convinced of this. Because it's all very serious, and I'm afraid to make mistakes with it. But now, I really feel that I love you. I'm not afraid to say it. I hope you will understand me properly, and you can reciprocate. Maybe you need more time to determine your feelings towards me. I'm willing to wait. But I really want to hear in response to this letter - that you love me too. But I'm also ready for another answer. So I ask you to be honest about your feelings, if it is present.

The letters we know each other figuratively - but even these letters can create the beginning! The beginning of love, relationships. Start a new life in which you can forget the past! Where you can start a bright future. And the ability to create a family! If we both want it - it's possible! It needs to aspire to. And that would be the best moment in my life, unforgettable joy and responsibility! Now I finish my letter and I will be exciting to wait for your answer! It would be nice if your thoughts were similar to mine. I am sending you the most warm and tender kiss. Maybe one day come a day when I can feel the taste of your lips in real life. I believe this is the most sweet and delicate flavor. I also want to tell you that if you do not mind, then in the next letter I write to you some of my fantasies. You know that I do not have any sexual experience, but I have my fantasies. Because I read some romance novels, and I have some dreams as well. I hope you're ready to read it. This will be another very personal letter. I hope you will be interested in it?

Your Regina

Hi Regina,

Great to hear from you. The last email was amazing. You managed to express a very convincing array of emotions. I almost feel like these are real emotions that you're communicating. These emails are very believable. Have you ever done any writing? Sometimes it feels like you're an author. The part about reading "many romance novels" made me laugh out loud. It makes a sincere comment about how romance is filtered through mainstream culture. It's interesting to think of all the ways in which romance is packaged and sold to the mainstream: novels, movies, pop songs, internet dating sites. In the end, I feel like this project will comment on all of these platforms.

I, for one, have always been accepting of mainstream forms of romance. As a kid, I would watch many romantic comedies about couples falling in love. In my country, we use the statement "and they lived happily ever after" to frame this type of romance. The reason we say this is because, at the end of the movie, the characters always end on a happy note. The movie suggests that they live a life that is struggle free and without relationship issues. Although we love to believe this in the movies, it is obvious that this is different from real life. Obviously, relationships in real life are, often, full of arguments, pain and unhappiness. This isn't the case with all relationships, but the divorce rate in the USA is very high. It would be great if we could all find the loves of our lives, but its not as easy as it sounds. I may have found the love of my life, but I'm waiting to see if it is a real romance or if it is just a fantasy.

Speaking of fantasies, I would love to hear what you come up with. Definitely send me your fictional fantasies and make sure to include plenty of "romance novel" sauciness. Another picture would be great. Looking forward to your response.

Fantaasy talk

Hello my love Tony! My most gentle and caring man on this planet. My sun, my happiness and my real love! I am so happy to receive your new letter, read it now. That's all I wanted today as waiting your reply with great impatience. Since I can't live without your letters like a fish out of water. This is of course the comparison, because I really can not live without your letters. You write very gently, that's how I like it. And I always want to hear from you these words to me. Always and everywhere. I do not care where we will be and how many people will stand around us. I am confident. That I'm going to kiss you all the time that I will never be upset with you because you are my light, for which I want to live, and strive for the best for the future!!! And everything that I dream is about when we meet in the future will be for us!!

My love, I really liked how you wrote and told me. I've just been waiting to write you!! Yesterday I met with my friend, as was going. We sat in the cafe, drank tea and ate a delicious dessert. And during all this time we have fun talking, she told me her news and events. I spoke a little bit about you, about what I am very happy now, and I really love you. My girlfriend wish us success in our future relationships! I saw that my friend was genuinely happy for me! Then I went home and thought about our love and affection that I want. I wish that it was all very romantic. You will like it? If you're going to come after work and I'll be waiting for you always!! Every day, and only you, because I only need you!! If we met now, and would already be together. Then when you get home - and I meet you with open hands, and a cheery smile because you're back. You undress and took place in a bathroom. To take bath and to come to the table, you already clean and dressed in house clothes. Then I sit down at the table! I think I will never dine without you ever been waiting for you, and together we will sit down to supper. So it will be more pleasant for you to have dinner with me, I think.

Yet while we have dinner and drink tea, we talk about it after us again. We tell each other the most wonderful words that we want. I'll call you my prince, and my love - my ideal and dream. After all, the way it is! You are the most kind and gentle man in the world! And I think that you are ready do everything for me and I appreciate it!! I feel your great love for me, your kindness and your gentle hands, your body and your breath. I continue ... after dinner when we - we can relax a bit, and then all of a little walk! You can show me the most fabulous places in your city. As I already said - I want to know everything about you, you showed me everything connected with you. Perhaps you'd like some place, maybe it will be romantic! You memorize it please. And then together we go there to spend time with. You're telling me something about it, and I will listen to you very carefully! We can then immediately return home or go somewhere else!

I'm sure you know more interesting places to visit, so you see me off! We can go where people will sit, there are places with you, I'm sure. Then we will walk together and hold hands. Then all the people will look at us and smile. So I think we will be a great example of a couple that happy together. Such a pair that has a purpose in life, we will always seek what we want to achieve together. I do not even doubt cute!! You are my favorite man, very caring, and I never will leave you. the main thing that you would not want to go away from me, or I just can not keep you! But I do not think about it, because you're a man and hope you can choose a life partner! With wit, and with a desire to! But these are only my dreams. I really wish that it was becoming a reality. And now all my dreams are just that.

Still cute, I want to write more! As I told you, I asked you last time about sex. Since this is also a very important part of a relationship and is very beautiful. Because only with you, I want to translate into reality my thoughts and dreams. And I think that if you are helping me in this - will have absolutely great! I want to. You understand - I am very gentle, and you want to start always with gentleness. I want to massage your back a little bit to relieve tension. At the same time feel your regular breathing. Probably every man loves a massage from a woman's sensitive hands? I know how to do it, and you'll have lots of fun to teach from it! When I finish, I let to you around your back my breasts, if you want it!!

And then I just have to iron in your ear and tell you quietly that I love you, honey!! You are my good and gentle! My hand then walk slowly to your pants and I touch your penis! First through his pants and stroking it very gently! When I have my hand between her legs you will - it will be very good for you! I think that by the time your body will already be up and does not suffer anymore! is this true? Then you just turn around and we see face to face and look straight in the eye! To be aware and have all the same contact, that is just an invisible thread - which connects us. Our minds! You place hands on my body and make me feel as a strong desire to make love! And then you start to take off my clothes so I was naked. Next, I think the same thing that you also like this! Then all the same what your fantasies? I continue to take your penis and start to dream, gently touching the tip! You get from most excited to just simply hug me and are already beginning to love!

But I just want to pinch my breasts. To its heat and massage! You tell me if you want more! When we will be in this state, maybe I can take it with your lips to kiss! From this you will be more fun? I'm ready to do it just for you! And I must say - that never before did not do it, but I want to try it with you! Only with you - a man whom I love very much and I do not want anyone else to give! But I want to tell you all my fantasy talk!! Just so you know, and then waited for this moment! So when we both have an excited state, then you have me real pleasure! That he was ready to give me pleasure. Here's what I would be like in sex cute, so I see it!!! To bring you up to this maximum possible state so that you will never forget it!! I want you always been good to me so you went satisfied. Since this is important for me too! I think I've also always be with you satisfied. And I said - yes, it was something nice, this has not been with me such pleasure and love test!

I want this, and I think that I could tell you what I think! What do I think at night! What I dream deal with you! I think you write me your opinion? I look forward to your letter again. And I will answer you always! Always tell me what you think and how you imagine! I just want to say one more time, that's all I wrote to you here - it's my dream. I read earlier many romance novels, and it was so exciting. I want our relationship with you, it was just beautiful and romantic. I think we can make relationship more beautiful and more emotional than any book novel. We ourselves will find better ways for it!

Can you imagine life with me and all that, as I wrote to you today? Do you want this? Do you want now? I really want to carry it all in a short time. Even now, I'm seriously thinking about our early meeting in reality. In my next letter, I will write to you in detail what I plan about our first meeting. And that, I think to do that! I think this is the next level in the development of our relations. I believe we need to know about each other. It is unlikely that in the letters you can learn a lot more. Now the only meeting in real life, can give us a complete picture of our desires. I understand that we have to work very hard at it. To eventually become the happiest couple of people on Earth. But I believe our love will help us in this. Now I will finish my letter, I hope not very shocked you my letter?

I love you.
yours Regina

Re: Fantaasy talk

Hi Regina,

This work of flux persona is growing with each new entry. I am amazed by the length and quality of your entries. I'm not certain if you just cut and paste these entries to multiple email accounts or if you actually write an entry each time you receive an email. In any case, we are adding chapters to a complex work of flux identity. I think that we have reached a point where I should clarify for the viewer of this work. I do not want them to get confused. Sometimes, these characters can become so overwhelming and lifelike it can be difficult to distinguish them from real life. So, here is my summary:

I am Tony, an artist of digital flux, virtuality, alias and alter ego. I am responding to an identity that reached out to me through email. I know that this identity, Regina, is a complete falsehood, but I enjoy crafting entries with this unknown entity. Somewhere out in the world, someone is taking the time to build entries and send photos of a woman who is supposed to be Regina. In reality, I know that there is no Regina. I know that there is no true feeling in these entries. Most of all, I know that there is no love story. Like the works of mainstream romance - movies, novels, love songs - this is a work that suggests a romance that does not and will never exist. The viewer should not be fooled into believing that this is a real romantic exchange. It is not. It is a sequence of entries that will be used to tell a fictional narrative. I am not creating this work in order to deceive the audience. Deception is not very interesting to me, which is why I'm explaining to the audience that this is not a reality. It is a fictional interaction. What I find interesting is the manner in which technology can extend across the expanse of time and space. I, Tony, the artist, am able to build my narrative by collaborating with an entity that is unknown to me...a robot, a cyborg, a stranger, an email, a computer screen, a processor shrouded in the identity of a woman from Azerbaijan.

Regina, is the lead character. Her entries are detailed and extensive. As I've mentioned before, I sometimes wonder whether she is an author or not. Her entries are similar to the romance novels that she speaks of in her emails. At times, I have referred to her as "it". I refer to her as "it" because I am unsure who is communicating from the other end of the messages. I have read the words and viewed several photos, but I am well aware that these are a facade. I'm also not certain about Regina's intent. Why did it want to communicate with me in the first place? Is it looking for money? Or, could this be a lonely person somewhere across the world, who wanted to communicate with someone on a regular basis? I am not sure, but I am curious to find out. I also hope that the audience will follow the narrative until its proper conclusion. Regina has told us about her family, her job, her hobbies, her thoughts and even her fantasies. She has shared images that show her at home, at the beach and partially undressed. What will be revealed next?

Tell me, do you want this?

Hello my biggest and strongest love Tony!!!! I'm happy now, because I see your letter, I read it and reply you now. I have enough time for it now. I'm really happy - and my joy up with every new day and new letter from you! After seeing you letter my heart is beating very strongly, more than you can imagine, and I have feeling it may jumps out soon! Then if it jump from my body - the big part of my heart, it will fly to you through the sky to your house - and there joins you. By this I want to tell you I'm ready to give you part of my heart. I want. And give all my spirits and joy, all my love for you. Tell me how is your mood today? I think that all is well and you write as you spend your day and night? My day was usual, nothing special.

Last night I was thinking about us again. I do not watch TV! I suddenly thought that if all of what we write can be in reality, as well as our words! That so fast people can fall in love with the letters. I write you only the truth about my feelings and my love to you! About my thoughts about sex, I just think a lot of us and fantasize.

What I think, and I absolutely can not display it in words! So much I want relationship with you. Closer to you, I fell in love with your inner world - what's in your heart. And you tell me about it, and I think that you're the man I want. Yesterday I was thinking about us and a lot of planning. I already can not live without you. Letter - this one, and we know about each other some, but we did not know each other in real life. And if we can meet one day - then it will be a moment that immediately shows that we are made for each other, or not. I never doubted - that if I see you in real life - then all will be good between us. And if I'll be able to look into your eyes, then I'll see everything, all their brilliance, which will go from your eyes to me. Then I just smile, then I'll understand everything at once, all of your feelings and love for me. Yes, just by the look! And if I see all of your actions, which have shown concern about me or courting. It is necessary for me to know and see in you! I am confident that I imagine you just so as in your letters, would like to see, and what you really are. I have good intuition and this is always confirmed in life. My intuition tells me that you are the best man for me, I want to be with you. I would like to start a new life with you, that I would allow to completely forget all the past, which was happened! For do not remember it. I still do not think about it, just telling you. Now, all my desire is to meet you. But if you're going to come to me? You have such a desire?

I think that this is not a good option. Because if one of my friends here in Azerbaijan recognizes me. They will immediately report this to my parents. And my father would see and know - I'm with you. I can not allow this. Since the law will punish me later!! BUT!!! If I come to you my dear. Then I have the right to leave Azerbaijan, and then to build my life as I want. Here in Azerbaijan, I can not be with you. This is a very important condition!!

In my head, and I can not think of anything else. All of those things, the apartment, the parents, my family and my work - it's all I can leave! Although friends and parents forever in my heart, and I can visit them one day, with you! If I come to you, then I can leave my work in Azerbaijan, and to work with you, in your city. And I think that you are helping me with this! I think to the work in shop is not difficult in your city, and everywhere shop assistant need. Professionals who know how to work with people.

That is I want to tell you that at first we can meet for a while to learn - can we be together or? What do you think? And if we see it, and have 100 confidence will approach each other, thus living together. Then we'll talk about the wedding !

I love you very much and would love to meet you too. I'll be waiting for your answer to this idea!!!! Yet when we meet. I say - that's different, it's not writing. Letters bring a lot of joy and a lot of desire, a lot of dreams!! But they can not show all the feelings that I have for you. All those emotions and my mind! You can not look at my eyes. That's why I say all this to you now!

I understand if you say it's still too early for a meeting. I can understand that. But I want you to know my thoughts correctly. Now our relationship in the sweetest period. We are at the beginning of the way that can lead us to happiness. We now have the most vivid feelings and emotions. And I want it to be developed in order to bring it even more fun and joy.

If we meet - then all what we write to each other can do, and we can put into reality. We can make love in bed, and can walk on different streets and the most beautiful places. We can every night bring each other pleasure to be happy. I would like you to massage me any time, every form, and when you're tired. I would like to make love to you, with each of our common desire. All that you write as you could do it! You write as you love me and you want a great love. We can do it soon! I thought yesterday that last dream, as it is more a desire to meet.

If we do not meet in the near future, then it would mean that our relationship will not develop. You and me, we will become pen pals, we will always write letters to each other, and maybe through a long time we meet. But then it will not be the same feelings of the brightness and joy of relationships. Then we get together and just be friends. I do not want that. I want develop our love in the real world.

Tell me, do you want this?

Because I want to learn all about how to come to you soon. To start, I just want to get information. I want to go to the city of Baku, in a large travel agency. I want to know the total price of my trip with you. Then I'll tell it to you. You have objections to this?

I have so much wait your answer! In general, what do you think? Tell me your thoughts, and then we are dealing with! I'll eagerly await your letter! And I want to say again that I love you!!!!!!!!!!!!

Travel Agency M y Love

Sent: Sun, Aug 09, 2015 05:07 AM

tonymylove.jpg (487KB)

Hello, my biggest love in this world Tony! Thank you for your answer. I very much expect to receive it today, and I'm glad that I can see that. Now I am full of energy and strength, and a good mood and full of positive. This is what I really need! How are you doing, how your mood, how is the weather? The weather here is warm now, I love this weather! In this weather I like to walk slowly down the street and enjoy this weather. Now I am very happy and I really want to visit you, and therefore knowledge about you is very important for me! But in the letters you can't see all this - you need to see it through your eyes. There's always better to see everything in person, instead of reading about it! I think that there is very important thing I have already know! It's how much I want to see you now. This is my only desire, and I would very much like this now! If I could do everything, then I fly to you by the sky, and come right to your house. Was standing on the threshold, and you would have met me.

I want to tell you today, important news, I went to Baku, and visited a large travel agency. I asked the approximate cost of travel to your country. They informed me that. But this is only approximate. To know the exact cost, I need to know the closest international airport to you. I hope you will say to me in your next letter. And I can write it in a travel agency. That they informed me the final cost. They also warned me that I was very cautious. Since in this big world, in many civilized countries, there is a lot of evil. There is still a slave, to get people to sell organs and to sell girls doing prostitution.

It was scary news for me. But I'm sure you're a good man, I can trust you with my life. I have such a feminine feel, therefore I am relaxed about it.

I read a lot of good reviews on this travel agency. Also my uncle has one of his childhood friend working there. I never told you about my uncle. But he is really very close person for me. He does not live in Azerbaijan, he had left it. Sometimes I write him a letter, to learn the news of his life, and also talk to him about my news. He's a man and has a different view of life, so his advice and his experience is very interesting for me. And this is the only person in our family who understands me and does not judge. So I can fully trust this travel agency. This travel agency has a good connection with the embassies of different countries, and a great experience. Therefore, preparation of travel documents for them is not difficult.

I went to a travel agency because this is my first experience of leaving the country. I do not want to make mistakes with it. If I'm going to do everything by myself, then it will be very difficult for me. I've heard a lot of stories about how people have tried to do everything on their own, and in the end they were refused a visa. So they even could not properly fill out paperwork.

I want to talk more about our relationship with you.

I do not doubt that our future relationship will be no doubts and distrust each other. I'm sure our love will live a long time, it can pass any test. When two people love each other, they can overcome any obstacle. Do you agree with me? I believe you, I believe in every word you say. I do not consider myself naive, but my heart tells me that you are sincere! What you really want only the best for me! My heart is not wrong! I know that's for sure!

I love you and that's important, I think so, and if I meet you and together we will - then I become the happiest girl on the planet. I will never leave you, my beloved man! I never think badly of you. I am a girl who knows how to forgive, and if there are errors, then I do not hurt - they're right! This will also be present at my side, and depend on me, and on whether you know how to forgive. You can not doubt my words. So as I write to you just what I think and what I dream of! And all my promises - it's not just words! It's true, and if properly understood, then you can see the real me! I'm sure you already know me well. You know my feelings for you, you know my hobbies and many of my thoughts! When I will come to you, I will say much more! You'll be able to see me, watch me. You'll be able to see and feel all of my feelings for you. I really want this! I want to give you my love, and also to see and feel your love to me! I hope that this will develop into a very large and serious feeling. We may even be able to create a family. And if between us will have such feelings and full of confidence. Then we meet, no matter what. I'd like to feel you soon, iron and show you all my care and love for you, my caring prince. I realize now that my life depends on you! And I think that you look at it from the correct side! I want to see you, to be your favorite woman. So you can never leave me!

You have to remember, for the love, I'm ready for anything! I'd like to hear from you the same words. If you think so, then you will write to me. It will be very difficult to meet, and we need to understand both. I've never flown anywhere else outside of Azerbaijan. It will be very difficult and not easy! I think - that our meeting will be spending all of our efforts and endeavors, it will require the support and care from you!! But we are ready and we will strive for this, right? We will not give up!!! I would also like to discuss with you a very important question. Full cost of the trip to you, it enough large sum of money for me. I have a decent salary to live here in Azerbaijan. I can spend it to pay for housing, food, clothing, and some entertainment (cafes, cinemas). But this money is not enough to pay for my trip to you. Unfortunately, I do not have much savings. And I can only pay 10 of the total cost of the trip.

This will be enough to start the preparation of all required documents. So I do not have any other means, I have to ask you to help me. Can you help me with the payment? You see, for me now it is very difficult to ask this of you. Since I've never done this, and now I have a not very good feeling. But, unfortunately, there is no way that we can meet with you without it. So for me it will be very important is your answer.

I really hope you can help me soon. And then we'll be together and be happy. I really want this. I hope that you, too, want to do this? I ask you, that you did not forget me tell your nearest International Airport.

When is the next time I'll get your answer, then I'll know all your thoughts and your desires. I ask that you not afraid to speak all your thoughts. I will understand it and accept.

I promised you I will soon be able to call you on the phone, so you can hear my voice, and I could talk to you. So I ask you, that you told me your phone number, which I can easily use to call you. Number of your cell phone, which is always turn on.

I LOVE YOU TONY, my gentle and caring man! I give you my most passionate kisses.

Your forever
Regina!

Regina,

Yes, the nearest International Airport is New York. It is a very large city. Maybe you have heard of this city. You should fly to this airport because it is a big city and there are many art galleries and museums. Maybe one day, we will exhibit this work of flux persona inside of a museum or gallery in New York. We can have an opening. There will be wine and cheese and many important people from the New York art scene. We can come to the gallery everyday to see how many people are looking at the work. We can have an artists talk and discuss the use of the fluctuating persona in art.

When we get hungry, we can walk down the street and eat chicken with rice. In New York there are many street food vendors who work outside of the museums and galleries because there is always good business. They serve large containers of chicken and rice for only $5. It is always delicious, but I think I will get Gyro meat. Yes, you can get chicken and rice and I will get Gyro meat. We will sit outside and watch the pigeons. Then we will go back to the gallery and be famous artists. It will be great. The only problem is that internet artists usually don't become famous. I'm not sure how to fix this. Maybe we will become the first internet artists to become ridiculously famous. More famous than Andy Warhol or Damien Hirst or, even, Jeff Koons. Yes, we will eat chicken and rice, host an artist talk and then become the most famous internet artists in the world. What do you think? Are you ready for this? Are you excited about doing this? I hope so. Looking forward to your response.

Regarding the visa

Sent: Mon, Aug 10, 2015 06:24 AM

IMG\_1409.JPG (609KB)

Hello, my biggest love! I see your letter, thank you! I am very happy to write you an answer! And I just wanted to tell you all what I think. I'll be honest with you. Absolutely, because it's my human quality.

I really love your writing! VERY MUCH!! I have no doubt that in your letter you write me nothing but the truth, and when we meet, I will see something similar. And I can love you even more! Because your writing is very thoughtful! And so I'm honest with you! And would never betray you. Since in our country the word "honesty" is the principal! I see that you are sincere with me, I can feel it! I trust you, in your every word. Because I love you much! That's love for you makes me do it all! I'm starting to learn all about the cost of my trip to you. I really want to come to you soon, but I will need your help. I want to be with you, in reality, be spending a lot of time together. And I know that our first meeting - it will be a test of our feelings. I'm sure everything will be fine. We can make sure that we a perfect match. And only then we can talk about things such as wedding and life together.

I want you to calm down, because I am an honest girl. I Was raised from an early age to be honest and tell the truth. At the same time, I live in Azerbaijan, with strict traditions! The truth is that I found you. And yes - I agree! We are know each other only through Internet. But if we do not trust each other - then all of what we have written is useless! I just want you to believe me 100! Love is not built at once, but by pieces. The bridge of love, that invisible thread - that is between us. I can feel it!! I see this thread, and already feel. Because I - I love you!!!

By my letter I want you to be treated seriously. I want you to believe me honey. my prince!! I have not lied to you. You know my age, and I do not want to lose all my life! I found you, I want to meet you, to be with you. I want it now. Since I already can not stay here in Azerbaijan. I want to leave this to you. To be near you, to get acquainted better with you, your family and friends.

I'm a single girl. I'm also afraid of many things!! I'm afraid of what the agency told me - about prostitution. BUT I KNOW YOU DO NOT DOING THIS TO ME! I'm afraid that you reject me, after my arrival. But these thoughts immediately go away from me. I try not to think about the bad.

But I have a very strong desire to visit you. I want this. I want to come to you right in your hands. And everything we dreamed of - that you met me at the airport. I dream of that, and I want it to be, as soon as possible.

I believe the travel agency at 100! If they said that they will be able to prepare my passport, visa, and tickets - then it is certainly true. Because the floor of their work. I will get a visa in Baku, the agency will submit the documents that I received it. And then, after payment for all documents and tickets, I'll fly to you from the International Airport of Baku. Besides, I told you, I learn many good reviews about this agency.

Regarding the visa. The agency says - that will make me an official, tourist visa in your country. And with no problems. This requires about 10-14 days. But we are willing to wait? I think so. Agency told me that the first time I can only go on a tourist visa. Because it is the easiest and fastest way. And they give all the guarantees that will help in getting this. The first time I could get a visa for a period of 3 months. After that, the next time I will be able to request a visa for a longer period of time. Or even ask for a different type of visa. Next time I can already ask for a visa, which I can marry you.

But, I think it is too early to talk about it. Because first we have to meet, get to know each other better. Learn better our character, habits. That then we could make such an important decision. A wedding is the most important step in the life of every girl. Therefore, you should prepare for it well. I want to get married only once in a lifetime. So I have to be absolutely sure of my choice.

Also, our government has a requirement that all travel documents and tickets was bought only here in Azerbaijan. And they need this be done by travel agencies, which are licensed to operate in the country. This is done to protect the people who leave Azerbaijan. And if a man will disappear, then the first thing the police will go to the travel agency through which this man was leaving Azerbaijan.

Order the tickets doing immediately when the documents are submitted for visa. Travel agency booking the tickets, and after the visa is ready, they are buying these tickets.

As for the payment. I do not want to upset myself, but it's so much. I'm ashamed to ask for your help!! But the trip is very expensive. Full cost of my trip is 1510 usd. It includes cost of all documents, passport, health insurance, tourist visa and plane tickets to your country and back. And this cost is final. I told you that I have only 10 of the total cost. That is, I am ready to pay 150 usd. I can do it very soon, for travel agency could begin to prepare the documents. But for this I need to be confident that you can help me with the rest. This amounts 1370 usd. Can you help me with this in the near future? For me it is very important to know your answer. Because I want to sign a contract with the travel agency.

And if you can help me, then I'll see that you're really an honest man, and want to see me! This will show me your full trust in me, and the desire to meet with me soon as well. Unfortunately, I can not pay for the whole trip itself.

I also do not think you're a rich man. For me it does not matter how much money you have, and how much income you have. I do not care. I was brought up on Poverty and truth. For me, the money never had much meaning. Money is only a means, a resource necessary for life. And therefore no wealth I do not care. I want you to understand this clearly. I'm concerned only your concern and love. I want you always watched over me. Because I want to caress you. Because in all my life did not feel anything. In your letters, I was able to understand that you are really gentle and caring. That you truly love me, and want only the best for me. I believe in what it is you can make me happy! And I want that. In our case, money - it only means for we can meet! Do you understand that? This is the only material question. I really hope it does not become an obstacle in the way of our happiness. What it can not prevent our meeting?

I'm doing a big step if the food to you. And doing it already thoroughly ponder. This is not a spontaneous decision. This is a deliberate step, and I am fully confident that this step is correct and necessary. So that we can get to know each other better. To enable us to carry out our dreams. To make our love grow stronger and bring us pleasure and positive emotions. Only our meeting will help us to get it all! Do you agree with me? And I do not want to stop.

I did not rush at all. I'm just looking for the truth. If you want to - we meet. If you do not want to date right now for any reason. Then I can not wait for long. I will be very upset. because I can not live without you. I'm going to cry, and the pain will not go away for a long time. But that's life, is complicated. I can not write letters to you on the internet every day afterwards. Since it is difficult for me. To be away from you, it's very hard. My feelings require implementation in real life. It will consolidate and develop. Do you understand that? We can write hundreds of letters, long time. We can share photos. But it will not bring us a lot of pleasure and joy, like a live meeting. One meeting can give a lot more emotions, memories and joy. Letters will never be able to replace it. Do you agree with me?

I always dream of you, I say to all of you. So I call this feeling - love!!! And it is the most pure and true love. This love has great power! But if we wait - all this will disappear for me and for you. do you understand? We're just going to become pen pals. I do not want that! I want a real relationship, live emotions and feelings. I like that. and I can not change that.

But if I see you now as I want. Then I'll be happy. I want to. so you thought. thinking a lot and gave me your answer tomorrow.

Love you.

Re: Regarding the visa

Sent: Mon, Aug 10, 2015 06:37 PM

Hi Regina,

Yes, it is time for the characters to meet. This is a very important moment in the narrative. I really enjoyed the setup of the travel agency in Baku. This provides a place for the spectator. I might even include images from google earth so that the viewer can understand what it looks like in Baku. I also find it interesting that you would develop the prostitution angle of this narrative. I realize that this is a very real and serious subject, but I think that this narrative would be most interesting if it were developed as a love story. Do you agree? Maybe that's just my melodramatic bias, but think it over. If you really want to make this about prostitution, I might have to compile what I have and make up the rest of the story.

On that note, we need to make decisions about how we will draft our meeting. We both understand that there will never be a meeting in real life, but our virtual meeting is entirely possible. It will not be a problem to fabricate a scenario where we meet and plan our storyline as famous internet artists. As far as money, of course I will pay for your trip to New York. $1,350 seems like hardly enough for you to travel comfortably. Since this is a fictional narrative, money will never be an issue. If you manage to spend all of the money that I give to you, I can simply create more in my imagination. So please, travel in style - first class, buy yourself a new luggage set and, while you're at it, purchase a new laptop so that we can continue to make works of internet art as you travel.

In order to make these purchases I will be sending you $10,000 via wire transfer. And remember, don't be afraid to spend all of this money, because I can always pretend that I have more. What do you think of this arrangement? In the meantime, I would like you to think about scenarios for our fictional meeting. I really enjoy the famous internet artist storyline, so I hope you will come up with something that enhances this possibility. I can't wait to read what you've come up with. Keep sending letters and pictures. I have the feeling that we are building a masterpiece.

Re: Re: Regarding the visa

Sent: Thu, Aug 13, 2015 05:33 PM

Dear Regina,

I was very surprised that you did not respond to my last letter. According to your email, I thought that we were ready to move forward with a meeting. Through the Baku travel agency you were supposed to get everything ready: visa, insurance, ticket, everything. Since I have not heard from you for several days, I am beginning to wonder if you're really interested in coming. Remember, in my last email, I sent you a message that I would provide $10,000 for travel. This will allow you to travel comfortably. You will also be treated with sophistication and class. This voyage is still a possibility, but I must hear from you as soon as possible.

Maybe you're wondering, "how does Tony have this much money?". Well, as I've mentioned in the past, I am a very successful internet artist. I make art work on a computer and sell them to influential art collectors. My works are collected all over the world. In fact, there is a very famous art collector in Azerbaijan who collects my work. I cannot tell you who it is, but if you google "Azerbaijani Art Collector" his name will be one of the first to come up. Go ahead and try it. You will see the collector who bought my work.

Also, don't forget about our goal. Although I am already established as an internet artist, I would like to include you within my work. Just by observing your entries, I can tell that you're very good on the computer. Even though you work mostly in an internet cafe, I can tell that you would make brilliant fictional narratives that could then be uploaded on the internet. The first narrative could be about two people who meet online. One is an artist in New York and the other is works retail in Azerbaijan. They could exchange emails back and forth until, one day, the girl from Azerbaijan decides to visit the artist in New York. Once she arrives, they decide to combine their talents to make a famous work of internet art. The work will show in museums and galleries all over New York. They will become more famous than any other artist of their generation. There will be collectors who agree to pay 100 times what their pieces are worth. They will be invited to influential parties and assume celebrity status. The artist will forget that his work is meaningless and that it really has no lasting value. The girl will forget that she rejected her family and religion. She will have very little memory of the days when she worked a humble job in Azerbaijan. There will be money and fame, jealousy and anger, happiness and sadness, drama and boredom, cocaine and milkshakes, sex and masturbation, sacrifice and selfishness and, finally, ascension and then a fall from grace. This can be the story. This is what we can do once you're ready to send me $10,000. So make sure to read all of this email and send me your address and phone number. Once I've received the money, we can begin our rockstar internet artist lifestyle. You can leave Azerbaijan and Baku. You will find everything you are hoping for and then you can lose everything you were hoping for. It is a timeless narrative. It is a beautiful story. It is an ugly story. It is, after all is said and done...a story.

Yours Truly,
Tony

Sent: Fri, Aug 14, 2015 06:08 AM

I read your letter. Ha ha ha it is very ridiculous! Why you to think, that I the silly naive girl. It is not necessary so to think, and I have understood, that you think, that I the cheat which want only your money.

You are mistaken! I simply wished to be with you. But now I understand, that you think absolutely on another. And on it you likely waited from me for other reaction. But you are mistaken.

I am not on sale!

Dear Regina,

It appears that my last letter was upsetting for you. I would like to opportunity to explain why I made such an offer. It wasn't because I thought you were naive or a cheat. I offered you the money because I wanted to treat you like a very special person. Perhaps I should come clean on a few things. I am interested in seeing you. I think it would be great if you came to New York, especially since you've never been outside of Azerbaijan. You can come as a tourist. You do not need to help me with my internet art. In fact, we don't have to talk about art at all. We can just talk about our lives and share stories about the past, present and future. I didn't mean to scare you away with the offer that I made. I just wanted you to feel welcome to my country. I wanted you to be even more excited than you already were. I'm not a famous internet artist. The truth is that internet artists are almost never rich or famous. They make art that is difficult to display in the museums and is even more difficult to sell. I like to make art, but I'm afraid that I haven't been very successful at making a living with my work.

Since communicating with you, I have discovered a whole new approach to my art making. I know that you have inspired a renewed sense of accomplishment and I would hate to never hear from you again. The truth is that I NEED YOU. I can't move forward without you. I will do whatever you ask as long as we can continue writing each other and sharing pieces from our lives. Is this possible? Will you be able to write to me and send me more pictures? Also, will you consider coming to my country? Is it too late to book travel with the agency in Baku? I hope not. Just tell me what you need and I will do my best to see that you get it. You can trust me. I am real and I have a heart that beats. I am not a robot. You are more important than the air that I breath. You add meaning to my life. I cannot go on without you.

Sent: Sun, Aug 16, 2015 05:28 AM

Tony, I have understood in what a problem. And now all became clear to me. I am glad, that you to write me the truth, and now I can say to you, that the truth it is very important. I already to say to you, that do not love when me to deceive. It to do a pain.

And now I understand, that you wish to continue our dialogue. But I to say to you, that we already should meet, it is necessary to be together, to touch each other, and to understand that we are created for each other. And on it we should solve a question with my arrival now already. Now it means this week. Also it is not necessary to postpone it on long.

Now about agency. They are ready to continue work with us, but for this purpose they payment now will not wait. If we to pay now all of them to make, and documents at me will be already on new week, and in the end of new week I can take off to you. And if you again wish to deceive me I will not be with you when.

I as wish to speak to you that if we we to stretch our meeting on more I easier to receive an interdiction on to leave the countries. And you will understand, that I not to deceive you, in difference from you.

Now we have a chance to be number. And I hope, that you not to miss it!

I love you and you wishes to be with you,

My dearest Regina,

It has been difficult to go days without communicating with you. I've been thinking about you and wondering how you are doing. I know that you have made plans to come to my country and I think you will be pleased with the latest update. I borrowed the money for your flight. I am ready to help you with the cost of travel. I need to know when you will be arriving. Once you arrive at the New York airport, I can give you the money for the travel. Once this is out of the way, we will be able to enjoy our time together in the city. We can go to the park, eat in restaurants, go to the museum and enjoy our evenings in the cinema. This is a dream that I have been counting on for some time. I'm very excited for your arrival. Go ahead and book the flight. Once you have your ticket, please send me the details of your flight. Is there anyway that we can communicate before you arrive? Would it be possible to Skype? In any case, I look forward to the details of your trip. Please send them to me as soon as possible. Also, you haven't sent me a picture in some time. Please send me another one because I want to see more pictures of you. I can't believe that this fairy tale will soon become a reality.

Looking forward to your reply,
Tony

To be with me

Sent: Fri, Aug 21, 2015 04:51 AM

My dear,

I again to see your letter. And I am glad, that I can read it, and to see everything, that you to think. As now we cannot speak with you, and only letters us with you now to unite. And I to see, that you very much would wish to be with me. To be a number. To give me the love. But you not to trust me. Yes, not to trust, as I to see, that you to say, that I should come to you! All to pay itself, and then when I to come to you, you will give me all. It to say me, that you could help me now, but do not wish to send it to me. As you to think, that I can deceive you. Or you to be afraid, that that of another.

As though to me it was not sick to understand, but I cannot to you that to speak against. It is your choice, and your decision. I do not wish to ask from you that, I simply to think, that if you to help me, I could come to you. And to be with you nearby. But to demand I that I can not. Certainly I to hear about deceits, and you are fine for understanding. And even to me it is a lot of to realise painfully, that you can speak, or think, that I same as all these swindlers. Which to gain money for "love". And it is very a pity to me which to get people on these dodges. And they have now only debts, and the broken hearts. A pain, and not trust. Simply these people become very sad. And looking at them, it is possible to tell, that they very strongly to be disappointed in a life.

And I think, that you do not wish to be such. As you to think, that I of one their "such" people. And on it not to trust me. There can be you to deal with these "people" and only on it, you not to trust me. No, I not to blame you, when. I simply have understood all. Also I can say to you, that we can be simple friends. Also we can have correspondence further. Only I think, that it not to result in what good. And we to have only time expenditure. As all people should not be one... And they should have second half.

Understand, I not the girl, and me not 18 years. And I cannot live one more. I wish to love, and to be favourite. To see the man near to itself. Also could touch it. It is a pity, that I cannot construct the happiness with you. And I very strongly wanted it. Yes you, that who have allowed to me to understand much, and have given me love.

I to trust you, and to give you my heat, my heart. And which I to hold my secrets in myself. And now I to understand, that it is all to come to an end. All it will be the most good fairy tale in which I to live. Also I can say you thanks, that you to present to me these not forgotten moments which have let to me know that it is not necessary to recollect the past and that it is necessary to live further. And now I will do it. I still love you, and you will live in my heart always. And even if at me to be other man, I when not to forget you. And I will search so that it to remind me you. What he as to understand me, and to love as strongly as well as you.

I to finish my letter, and I will wait for your answer.

Yours, always

Dearest Regina,

Thank you for your letter. You misunderstand me. The only reason that I asked you to pay was because it would make everything happen faster. If you paid the travel agency, you could fly to my country in the next few days and we could look into each other's eyes. It would be a special moment and it would happen now, rather than later.

I am happy to send the money for you to buy the ticket. I already know the amount, but I don't know where to send it. Would I send it directly to the travel agency or would I send it to you. If I am to send it to you, can you give me your address? If you send me your address, I will rush out as soon as I get your email and send the money via international mail. In fact, I will use international overnight service. You will have the money within a week. You can buy the ticket and get on the airplane and we can finally get to meet each other face to face, like normal human beings. What do you think? Will this work for you?

If this plan is to work, there is something I will need from you. Before I send the money, you must send me another picture of you. Remember when you sent me the picture with the sign that said "I'm real"? I want you to send another picture of you with a sign. In the sign, I want it to say "Tony, I am real." This way, I will know that your love is true. I will know that you are sending the picture just for me. I will know that this is real....very, very real. I will know that this fairy tale will end happily ever after. Please send me this picture. Don't wait! Do it now! We've had too much time waiting. I want to make sure that our letters become reality. I want to make sure that this story is not a movie or a book or a love song. It will be truth. Absolute and undeniable truth.

You to ask a photo, I have made it. I hope, that now you will not change the words, and now to make all as I to you to speak. And by that you to pay for my documents and tickets. And we should wait till next week. And it is possible that already in the beginning or in the middle of the next week I to receive all it. And I can safely take off to you. And to be with you nearby.

And on it I ask you to send money directly to the main office of agency! To Poland. I already obtain data of the agent which can to accept your money fast transfer. They to say to me, that you can take advantage Money Gram or Western Union. As they to speak, that there were no superfluous problems for you, and there were no delays, whether if you while translating money will be asked you know the person to whom you to send money, tell that you know, and that money to send on business. So they will faster work.

Here the given agencies

first name - Maksim

last name - Mylov

city - Warsawa, 04-685

And as soon as agency I will receive your money to inform you on it. And I can safely prepare to a trip for you. And every day we with you will write letters till the most unforgettable moment. And as soon as I in the airport hours of my flight will already come to separate us only. Which likely to fly by not considerably for us. And certainly I will wait for you in your country, at the airport. And as soon as I you to see, I want, that you to embrace me and strong to kiss.

Now I will wait for your letter, and your answer. Also I ask you Tony, and certainly I wish to ask agency from you a copy of the form of transfer. That I could show to its agency, and as that it to be at me. Agency to guarantee safety of your money while translating, and it is copy to be necessary to me if will be problems. But I will not be confident that them.

As to bear agency full responsibility for your money. And if their agent to lose this money it will pay my trip. As soon as you to show a copy in agency, they to bear responsibility.

I love you, yours

Dearest Regina,

You must forgive me for not writing for such a long time. The truth is that the last week has been one of the most unstable periods in my life. After reading your last letter, I flew into a fit of passion. I realized that I couldn't live another moment without looking into your eyes. All of this talk about meeting you made my heart twirl and palpitate. I've waited so long to meet the partner of my dreams. It was difficult to believe that you would find me from your far away country. That my soul mate would, indeed, reach out and profess her undying love. It seems too good to be true. Like the poorly written scenario of a Hollywood movie...like the sappy lyrics of a 60's era folk singer....like the overdramatic pages of a dime store romance novel. Yet, it is true! It is real and I can feel in you in my heart long before we have had the opportunity to gaze into each other's eyes. The moment has arrived. It's time for this story to become a reality. It is time that we place computer language to the side and we speak with our own voices. We are not robots, or programs, or virtual personas....we are real and soon my reality will be dripping before you. Soon we will have the chance to connect in a way that humans were meant to connect. Face to face. Touch to touch. Person to person. Yes! I am so excited, I can barely control my own emotions. Are you still as excited as I am?

One of the reasons that I was not able to write is because I was getting ready for your arrival. I have some very good news and I think you will be pleased by the time that you arrive at the New York City Airport for International Arrivals. Over the last week, I have been making arrangements for use to take our love to the next level. Attached within this email is a document. This document will allow us to be legally married before you arrive in the New States. As you can see, I have already filled out the form. Now, you must fill out the other half of the form with name, address, date of birth. Once the form is complete, you can send it back to me and I will submit it to city hall. Once the paper is submitted, we will be officially married by the New Jersey State of Licenses. When you step off of the plane, you will be my legal wife. Regina, my love, I know that you are very worried about being sold as a prostitute. I know that the travel agency in your country warned you about this problem. This is why I think marriage is best. This way, you will have confidence that I would never harm you or ask you to sell your body. What husband would ever ask his legal wife to prostitute themselves? I think this is the best way and it will give you the most confidence as you arrive in my country. Please make sure to fill out the form and to send it back to me as soon as possible. I know that in your letters, you spoke about the dream of getting married. Well, guess what? That dream is now a reality. You will have a strong, smart, good looking husband who is an internationally recognized internet artist.

Regina, do not wait! Make sure that I receive your paperwork as soon as possible. Also, you should send another picture just in case they require one for the license. I'm so excited to receive your letter. I'm so excited to hear what you have to say about our marriage. I went back and re-read our letters. It reads like a modern romance novel. Soon, that novel will have a happy ending. Soon...very soon, I will be able to write the most important piece of the story. It will say the following, "and they lived happily ever after".

Sent: Tue, Sep 01, 2015 05:38 AM

My darling,

I was glad to see your letter. And as soon as I to receive your paper, and I have decided to consult with agency and as to direct this to a bug to migratory service, to be assured, that it will help me to receive the visa, and as possibility to go to you.

And you know, my pleasure was not so long! In my country not so simply to receive the visa to the girl, and is very rare when to give visas to lonely girls without children. Such as I. And I at first thought, that I cannot receive it, but the agency has helped me. And they to say, that I can receive all. And on this paper, I that I will not receive..... And now there was a question to me in general to forbid to submit documents on the visa in a current of 3 years.

And as now the agency, will know likely, that I can have problems with visa reception!

Why we with you not to do all as to us spoke agency? Why we to search for difficult ways?

If all of us to make as to us to speak agency as I spoke to you, we likely already would be together. But we with you to search for adventures.... And we have found them.

Now I at all do not know what to do.

I just to receive the letter from agency, and they to say, that we can receive the visa very quickly, and right now, and there will be no interdiction. If we do not waste time and all to make as they to speak. But I think, that you again will not listen to me, and will search for any other ways. And it seems to me, that you are afraid for the money. You are afraid to send money more precisely. You think, what I to deceive you?!

Now I think, that we with you and will be far apart. If you now not to make all as to ask us to do agency right at the beginning. You know all. And now all depends on you.

Also remember, my country absolutely another, and differs from yours. And laws at us on much severe, than at you.

I will wait for your answer.

Dear Regina,

A new year has arrived and I want to make sure to bring closure to everything that has happened to us. In my last email, two months ago, I sent you a document that would allow us to become married in the eyes of the law. I was hoping that you would fill out the marriage application and mail it back to me. This would provide you with the opportunity to purchase your Visa and to join me in New York. We would then be able to continue our career as famous internet artists. I also wired the amount of $1,500 to the headquarters of your travel agency. This money was sent to the attention of Maksim Mylov in Warsaw, Poland.

Unfortunately, you never returned the application. It seems like you were not ready for such a huge change of lifestyle. I understand that living the life of an international internet artist can be intimidating, but I never expected you to run away from my offer. I just wanted to communicate with you one last time. I value all of our interactions and realize that they never could have happened without these telematic tools of technology. I also want you to know that I have moved on. Don't worry about me dear Regina. While I was waiting for your response, I met another possible artist over the internet. Her name is Elena. She is 27 years old and lives in Russia. Like you, she has the physical appearance of a model, but she has decided to be a fitness instructor instead. Anyways, Elena and I are making arrangements to be famous internet artists. We are working on a new project and hopefully I will be able to share it with you at some point in the future.

Please don't be jealous dear Regina. We had our opportunity and, now, that opportunity has passed. Remember all of our good memories and all of the internet work that we made. I know that I am a better artist because of our exchanges, and I hope that you are too. Maybe, at some point in the future, I will read about you online. You will be a famous internet artist without me. That would make me very happy. If you were to become a famous internet artist, it would make me feel, in some weird way, a little responsible for everything that has or will happen.
